March 15, 2009 Yakima Herald Republic

REBOUND: To SHELBY CHESLEK, who did precisely that — rebound — better than anybody in the 12-year history of the 2A tournament. In accruing her 60 rebounds over four days, she led the tourney in both offensive rebounds and defensive rebounds.

March 15, 2009 Spokesman Review

Pullman's Shelby Cheslek, who battled Walker inside all morning, pulled down 10 rebounds and finished with a tournament-record 60 rebounds.

She was presented with a commemorative ball as part of the postgame trophy presentation and was named to the all-tournament second team.

March 12, 2009 Lewiston Tribune Pullman 56, River Ridge 41

Shelby Cheslek recorded a double-double to help Pullman overtake River Ridge in the second half of this consolation-bracket contest.

Cheslek, a 6-foot-4 sophomore, tallied 16 points, 17 rebounds and three blocks. Twelve of her points came in the second half, when Pullman erased a four-point deficit.

March 13, 2009 Lewiston Tribune Pullman 55, Bellingham 40

Shelby Cheslek notched another double-double to pace Pullman past Bellingham in a consolation-bracket game.

Cheslek, a 6-foot-4 sophomore, finished with 14 points and a game-high 19 rebounds. She had 16 points and 17 rebounds the day before against River Ridge.

Cheslek, who blocked seven shots, was also a factor in holding Bellingham to 26-percent shooting.
